STUDIES
01 — 03

THE ORDINARY,
OBSERVED DIFFERENTLY.

AN INDEPENDENT ART-DIRECTION STUDY

EDITORIAL NOTE / 001

A STUDY IN WHAT IS WORTH KEEPING

Attention changes everything.

This collection studies the ordinary: the inclination of a shoulder, a flower held against stone, a chair reshaped by afternoon light. It looks for meaning not in spectacle but in the edit.

Five original illustrative scenes form the photographic foundation.

All secondary frames are disclosed crops and interpretations.

No real client, model, photographer or commercial campaign is implied.

INDEX / THE THREE OBSERVATIONS

The edit is the idea.

01 GESTURES 05

A body is never entirely still.

02 ARRANGEMENTS 11

The space between things.

03 IN BETWEEN 17

Rooms made visible by light.

The frame is a choice.

OBSERVE / COLLECT / RECOMPOSE

PHOTOGRAPHY AS A PRACTICE OF ATTENTION

01 / PORTRAIT & MOVEMENT

GES TURES

A shift in weight.

A fold of fabric.

The afterimage of a pose.

BODY / FABRIC / TIME

FIG. 01 / GESTURE, SEATED / GENERATED PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDY

FRAME NOTES / HUMAN SCALE

What the hand remembers.

A hand becomes the hinge.
The fabric records motion,
even after the body rests.

CROP STUDY / ORIGINAL SCENE 02

SEQUENCE / FROM FORM TO DETAIL

The wide frame finds posture; the close crop finds tension.

Two treatments of the same illustrative image, not two separate photographs.

CONTACT SHEET / EDITING AS DESIGN

One scene.
Several readings.

05 / STUDY

A gesture is an archive.

MOVEMENT DOES NOT ALWAYS REQUIRE MOTION.

ARRANGE MENTS

The considered position of ordinary things.

OBJECT / SHADOW / RELATION

FIG. 02 / THE FLOWER AS A LINE DRAWING IN SPACE

THE STILL-LIFE STAGE

A table is a small stage.

MATERIAL / LIGHT / RELATIONSHIP

The cut between frames is as important as the placement within one.

Cropping creates new associations between texture, transparency and scale.

SELECTION BOARD / COHERENCE BEFORE VARIETY

FRAME 01

FRAME 02

FRAME 03

FRAME 04

FRAME 05

Objects are always in dialogue.

COMPOSITION / AN ACT OF RELATIONSHIP

03 / SPACES & ARCHITECTURE

IN BETWE

A room is made visible by the light it keeps.

LIGHT / SHADOW / ABSENCE

FIG. 03 / AN EMPTY CHAIR CAN BE THE SUBJECT.

DIPTYCH / LIGHT AS ARCHITECTURE

The frame isolates a threshold. The following frame studies its shadow.

Both are derived from the same architectural scene.

COMPOSITION / THE GEOMETRY OF LIGHT

Space is a kind of pause.

THREE CHAPTERS / ONE EDITORIAL LANGUAGE

The same attention.

01 / GESTURES

02 / ARRANGEMENTS

03 / IN BETWEEN

Different subjects, consistent image logic: a chosen point of view, a deliberate crop and a caption that earns its place.

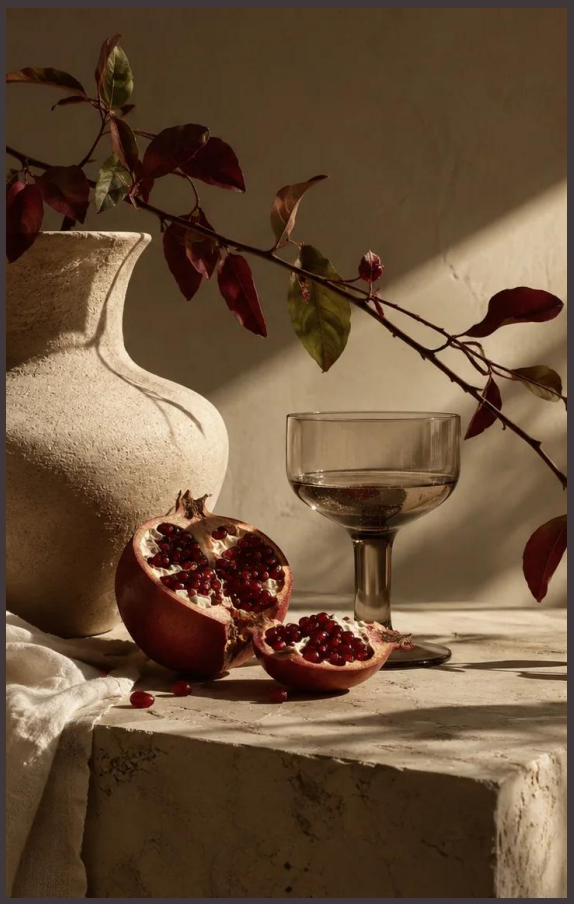

Look once.
Look again.

PLAIN SIGHT is a proposal for patient observation. It uses a disciplined, reproducible editorial system to give each image room to speak while allowing meaning to emerge in the sequence.

No photo shoots, production vendors, or external interviews occurred.
The images are AI-generated visual studies with openly identified crops.
